Grand Blanc High School, we're for you
Just as long as skies are blue;
Go on to victory, for Grand Blanc High
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Show them we are always there
With a team that's always fair
To fight with all their might
For dear old Grand Blanc High.

We, the Echo Staff of 1930, take this opportunity to make known our most sincere appreciation to
MR. BURTON HAZZARD
for his faithfulness and devotion
he has exhibited in working with us.

To the Parents of
The Class of '30
whose Spirit of helpfulness, devotion, and sympathy was ever present, we gratefully dedicate this Book of Memories

To edit a yearbook is no small job,
And when the class has such a mob
Of pupils, it takes a lot of time and brains—
Much more than any of our heads contain.
We surely thank you, one and all,
For the part you played, whether large or small.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The purpose of the Junior State Police is to promote safety for the children who go to and from school. Some of the boys are stationed at various places on streets associated with the school, where they keep the children from crossing the street except when it is time for them to cross. The rest of the boys are stationed about the school house and school yard to keep order, keep the children from running in hall, and to keep them from getting hurt while they are in the school yard.

No serious accident has occurred in Grand Blanc, as a result of the vigilance of these boys.

Juanita Belford and Esther Hill joined the squad after the group picture was taken.

The first game of the season, which was December 13, resulted in a victory for the Grand Blanc girls. The squad was divided into four teams, each team playing a quarter. The game ended with a score of 38-16 in favor of Grand Blanc.

The Grand Blanc girls lost a hard fought game to Mt. Morris at Grand Blanc, January 3. The game was very fast, owing to the fact that the teams were very evenly matched. At the end of the half, the score was 10-6 in favor of Grand Blanc, but during the last half, the Mt. Morris girls rolled in the baskets until the game ended, the score being 15-12 in favor of Mt. Morris.

Our next victim was M. S. D. on January 10, at M. S. D. The team encouraged by many rooters, obtained the lead in the first quarter, and held it throughout the game. The game ended with a score of 36-7.

The Swartz Creek girls came to Grand Blanc on January 15, for their first game, having just organized a team. The Senior girls had a vacation, none of them being in the line-up. The girls played a good game, obtaining a lead in the first quarter, and remained far ahead of the Swartz Creek girls throughout the game. Score 48-5.

January 23, the Grand Blanc girls again easily won from the County Normal. At the half, the score was 33-0 in favor of Grand Blanc, but in the last half, the Normal girls rolled in one basket. The game ended with a score of 69-2 in favor of Grand Blanc.

G. B. vs. Holly

The girls on January 28, lost a very hard fought game at Holly. The game started rather slow, but kept getting faster as it progressed. At the end of the half, the score was 7-6 in favor of Grand Blanc. The last half was very fast and exciting. The Holly girls gained on us, and the result was 18-21.

G. B. vs. M. S. D.

Our school played M. S. D. for the second time, which proved to be another victory for us. The game was played at Grand Blanc on January 31, with a great many rooters out. At the half, the Grand Blanc girls had the lead, which they held all through the game. The game ended with a score of 36-6 in favor of Grand Blanc.

G. B. vs. Mt. Morris

This game with Mt. Morris on February 6, proved to be one of the best of the season. As Mt. Morris is one of our leading rivals, a great deal of interest was shown, and a large crowd from Grand Blanc turned out. At the half, Grand Blanc turned out to be in the lead, but during the next two periods, the score was very close. The game ended with the score 20-20.

G. B. vs. Holly

This game being our last game, on February 18, we determined to have a victory. The game started very fast, and at the end of the half, Grand Blanc found themselves ahead. Holly came back strong, but they were not able to defeat us. When the final whistle blew, we had won our last game of the season. Score 19-16 in our favor.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Although Grand Blanc did not have such a wonderful season, according to the number of games won and lost, it developed a hard fighting and fast team. In the first game with Gaines, Grand Blanc came off the floor victorious, but during the game, Malott, our veteran and star forward, broke his arm, and was unable to return during the whole season.

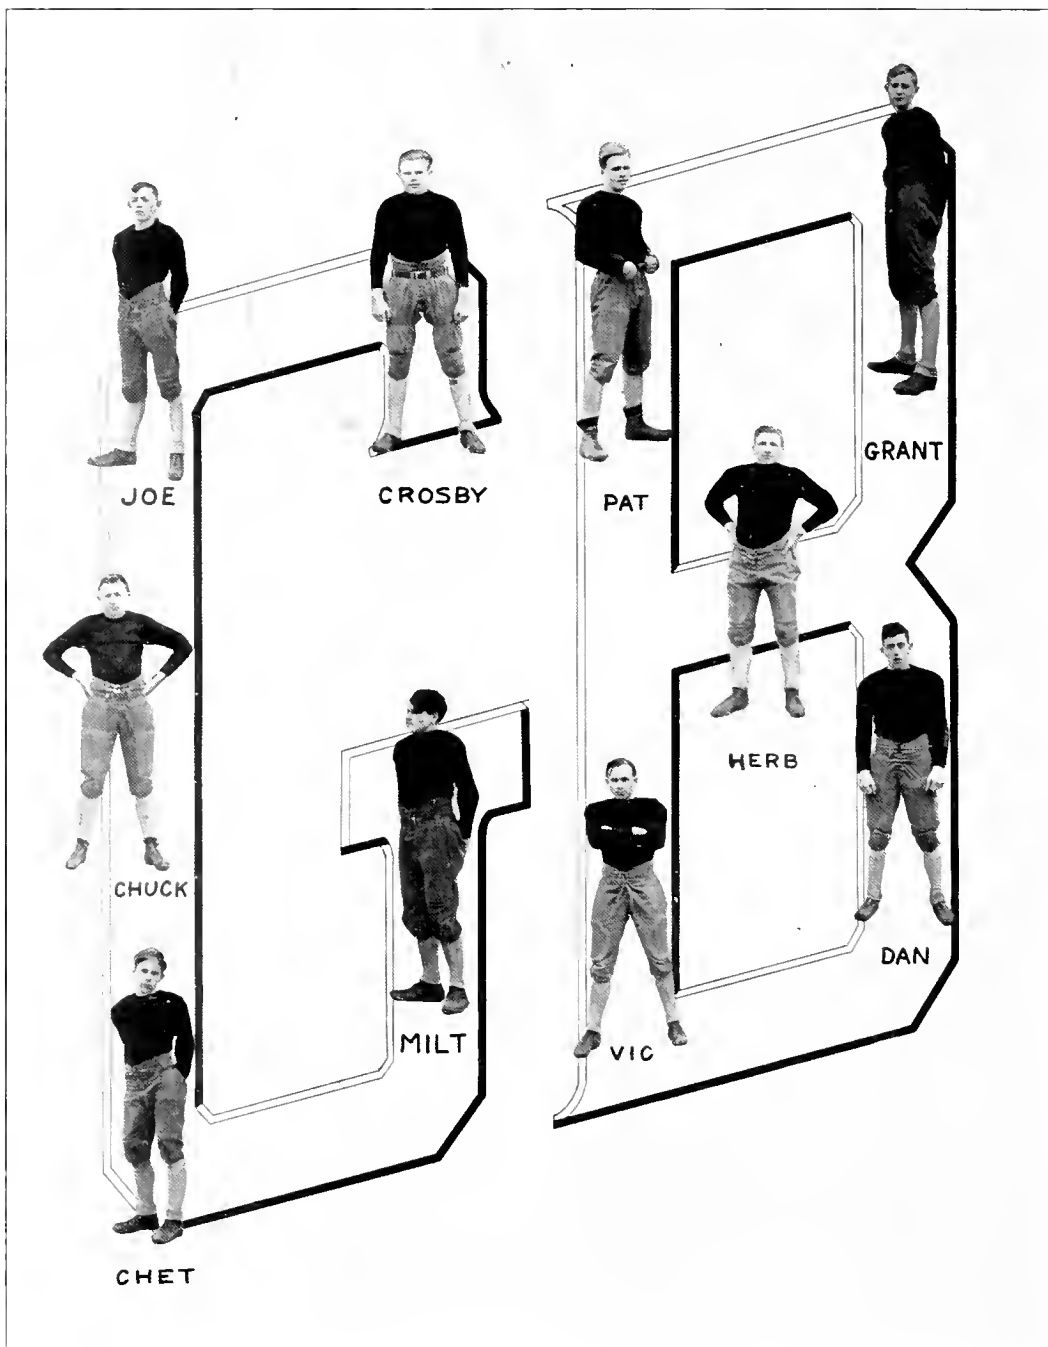

The next three games played on the home floor resulted in the losing to Mt. Morris, and M. S. D., and winning from the Asbury Greys of Flint. Journeying to Fenton, Grand Blanc was again defeated, but showed real fight and some flashes of the basketball they were capable of.

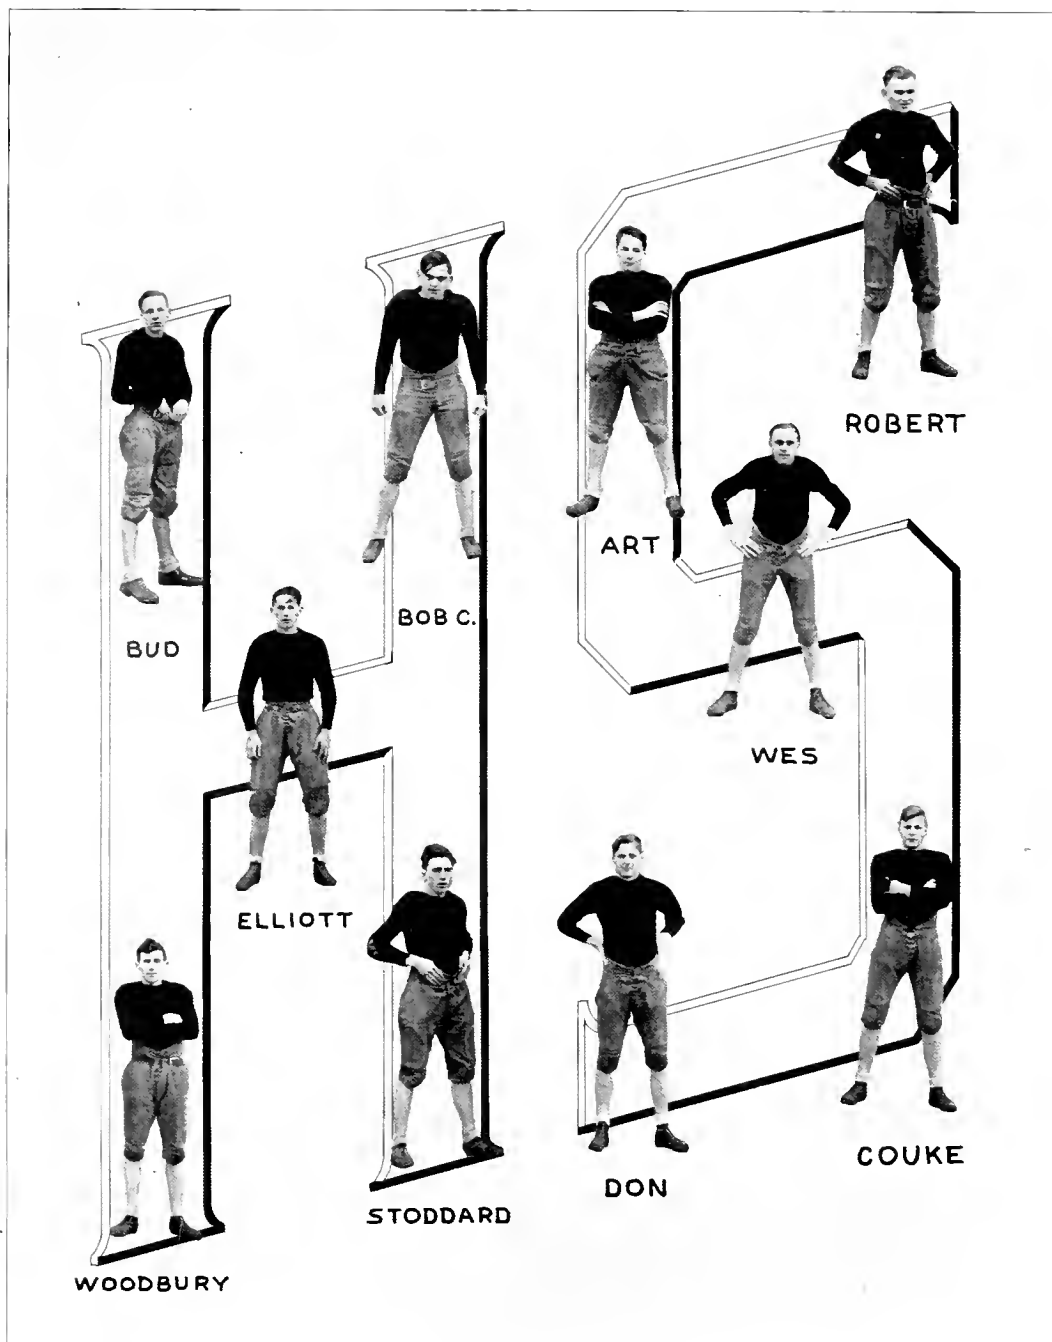

The next games played on the home floor showed the boys could play if they were hard pressed. Winning from Swartz Creek and Flushing, and tying with Lapeer in the end of the half, but losing the game, showed real basketball. M. S. D., Lapeer and Mt. Morris were able to beat the Blancers, but only by a small score.

Then came one of the best games of the season. Grand Blanc defeated Fenton on the home floor, showing the best brand of basketball of the season. Flushing and Holly were able to beat the boys, but only after very hard battles.

Then the tournament at Flint Central arrived to decide who would be champions of the County. Mt. Morris drew a bye for the first night, but Grand Blanc, having to play Clio before meeting Mt. Morris lost the game to Mt. Morris by a few points. At the District Tournament, the Blancers were again defeated by Mt. Morris.

The season's defeats may be attributed to the fact that the style of playing introduced by the new basketball coach, Donald Batchelor, was a new and better system, and also a little more complicated than the old system. The "B" squad, and those who are members of the Varsity and who will be with Grand Blanc next year, look pretty promising, so we are looking forward to a successful season next year.

In the fall of 1929, a large squad turned out for fall football practice, under the direction of the new coach, Donald Batchelor. A few days later, the squad was in fighting condition and anxiously awaiting the first game of the season. The team was not heavy, but made it up in speed and aggressiveness. The season was considered a success losing only one game in the county, which was to Fenton, placing Grand Blanc in third place.

GRAND BLANC VS. GOODRICH

The first game of the season, September 30, was played with Goodrich on our home field. The boys showed real football ability. Page securing the three touchdowns for the winning points of the game. Coach Batchelor tried out all of the new material, nearly 30 players participating. Score at the end of the game, Grand Blanc 21, Goodrich 0.

GRAND BLANC VS. OVID

The Grand Blanc squad went to Ovid on September 27, to play the champions of Shiawassee County, and were able to hold the champions to a low score. In the first half, the champions scored two touchdowns, the only scores of the game. The Grand Blanc boys fought their hardest except in the first and the forepart of the second quarter. The score at the end of the game was, Grand Blanc 0, Ovid 15.

GRAND BLANC VS. FLINT CENTRAL RESERVES

On October 4, Grand Blanc played Flint Central Reserves on the home field. Grand Blanc's defeat was due partly to the fact that a number of boys were hurt in the hard game of the Friday before with Ovid. The boys played hard, but lacked the push to win the game. As the last whistle blew, the score stood, Flint Central Reserves 14, Grand Blanc 0.

GRAND BLANC VS. DAVISON

In a driving rain, Friday, October 11, Grand Blanc played the heavy Davison team on Davison field. The ground was wet and muddy, making it hard for the lighter and faster Grand Blanc team to get started. Several times in the last half, Davison was forced to punt within their own 10-yard line, but Grand Blanc was unable to score. The game ended, Davison 0, Grand Blanc 0.

GRAND BLANC VS. FLUSHING

On Friday, October 18, Grand Blanc played Flushing on Grand Blanc's home field to avenge the defeat of last season's football game. In the second quarter, Grand Blanc forced Flushing down to the 5-yard line, where our Hutchins went through the line for a touchdown. In the last quarter, Elliott went off tackle and succeeded in making a touchdown from the 12-yard line. The final score, Grand Blanc 13, Flushing 0.

GRAND BLANC VS. MT. MORRIS

Mt. Morris came to Grand Blanc in a large body expecting a victory, but were disappointed. Mt. Morris having a heavy team, were able to pound our line heavily, but the Grand Blanc boys held. The score at the end of the game, Mt. Morris 0, Grand Blanc 0.

GRAND BLANC VS. CLIO

On November 1, Grand Blanc went to Clio to play on Clio's home field, which was muddy and slippery from the rain of the morning. In the first half, Clio was able to get close enough to Grand Blanc's goal to get a field goal, but in the last half, it was a different story. Grand Blanc forced Clio back to their own goal line, where a blocked punt netted us two points, making the score 3 to 2, in favor of Clio. In the last quarter, with about five yards to go, Hutchins, our right half, went over for a touchdown. The score at the end of the game was Grand Blanc 8, Clio 3.

GRAND BLANC VS. FENTON

On November 8, Grand Blanc went to Fenton to play for the County Championship. Up to this time, Grand Blanc's goal line had not been crossed by any County team. The two touchdowns which were made by Fenton were made on flukes. One a blocked kick and another an intercepted forward pass. One in the first and one in the last half. Grand Blanc forced Fenton back to within her 20-yard line, but lacked the final push to win the game. Fenton, although a heavier team, showed no superiority to our fast, hard-hitting team.

GRAND BLANC VS. HOLLY

The last game of the season was played with Holly on Grand Blanc's home field, November 15. Grand Blanc forced Holly within their 5-yard line three or four times, but were unable to score, either because of penalties or of fumbling. Holly was able to score in the third quarter, the only score of the game. Never mind, boys, we'll beat them next year. Score at the end of the game, Grand Blanc 0, Holly 7.

The Grand Blanc Baseball Team, under the direction of Coach Batchelor, made great progress down the list of opponents so far by winning six out of seven games. We have the material, so let's all boost the team and put Grand Blanc on the map.

Anyone down hearted? No!

Everyone happy? Yes!

County Champions ? ? ?

Yeh, Team! Let's go!

Mr. Severance—Pray, how would you discover a fool?

Joe Gainey—By the questions he would ask.

✂   ✂   ✂

Art Clune—I should have more credit on that first question. I wrote six pages.

Mr. Pepper—We don't weigh the papers.

✂   ✂   ✂

"Where did you find this wonderful follow-up system. It would get money out of anybody."

"I simply compiled and adapted the letters my son sent me from college."

✂   ✂   ✂

When the waiter said to the professor of English, "Did you say pudden, Sir?" the enraged diner answered: "I did not—and I hope I never shall."

✂   ✂   ✂

From a schoolboy's examination paper: "Liberty of conscience means doing wrong and not worrying about it afterwards."

✂   ✂   ✂

"Mummy, do you say 'It is me' or 'It is I'?"

"Always remember the rhyme: 'It is I,' said the spider to the fly."

"I see—but couldn't you say 'It is me,' said the spider to the flea?"

✂   ✂   ✂

Found in the examination papers of a grammar school class: "The plural of spouse is spice." "The subjects have a right to partition the king." "A mosquito is a child of white and black parents." "The population of New England is too dry for farming." "A vacuum is a large, empty space where the Pope lives."

SEPTEMBER

- 3—School starts with a bang! Mr. Pepper says there aren't many students enrolled in livestock yet, but there soon will be.
- 6—Don hasn't grown any taller or Joe any shorter during vacation.
- 10—Mr. Pepper is having a lot of fun getting our schedule fixed. Of course we are in a terrible hurry to get to work.
- 12—I'll let you in on a secret; Isabelle is on the eighteen-day diet which consists chiefly of lettuce and grapefruit. Poor Isabelle!
- 14—Believe it or not, Dan actually studied eighth hour today!
- 15—Ann, stop teasing Joe. You know he doesn't like it!
- 17—Pauline, why are you all smiles? A little boy responsible?

- 19—A member of the Senior Class is lame today, which proves that Seniors should begin to act more dignified. Remember, a year ago tonight, kids?
- 23—A rose always smells the same, even if under a different name—anyway, Mr. Malott says so.
- 25—Joe, don't you ever attend a class?
- 26—Horrors for Freshmen—INITIATION.
- 27—The Sophomores entertained the Frosh at their annual party at the High School.
- 30—Oh, Boy! Only nine months more.

OCTOBER

- 1—Stop throwing apples in the study hall sixth hour!
Miss Affeldt is fed up on this applesauce.
- 2—Weston Hutchins has no "sox appeal." His explanation is, "That's what we do in Florida."
- 6—Isabelle puts up a good argument in Civics class. She doesn't know it is impossible to argue with a man.
- 8—What makes the river rise, Dorothy?
- 9—Can you imagine Garnet without Elva Alice?
- 13—Mr. Malott threatens to lock the door during Civics class. No more tardiness, Dan.
- 16—Sue, aren't you afraid you will catch cold spending so much time at the west windows?
- 19—"The Freshman stood on the burning deck—he didn't burn—he was too green." Statement used by Mr. Pepper while raking a Freshie over the coals. Imagine the poor boy's embarrassment in front of these dignified Seniors.
- 21—Fred, who did you fall for today?

22—Some people wonder why a certain group gather in the room off the study hall. We'll never tell!

23—First snow today—sure sign of winter.

24—Peg, why the dramatic exit from Chemistry class today?

25—Football game with Mt. Morris. Francis Gainey has five dollars coming. Think you'll ever get it, Francis?

28—Girls, what is this power Blanche has over men? A chance for six dates for the week-end, and we sit home and read the funny papers.

30—Why so solemn, football boys? Worrying about the Fenton game?

31—Art, Don, Joe, and Dan, stay out of Oakland County tonight—enemy territory.

NOVEMBER

1—The town looks as though a cyclone struck it! Don't believe a cyclone could do that much damage.

6—We wonder if the boys are really growing whiskers so as to look tough to Fenton's team—it's a bluff—they want to look "cayemanish."

7—Art had to change a tire on that green Chevrolet, much to his dis-cussed."

8—The big game at Fenton! The townspeople went over in a big array of fifty-two decorated cars. The boys lost, but only because Fenton got the lucky breaks—we gave them a good fight, anyway.

11—Vot is idt, Vic?

13—The operetta, "Windmills of Holland," given by the Glee Clubs and Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Miss Derthick, and Miss Affeldt, was very fine, and received much praise.

- 14—Well, I'm fourteen, Maxine!
- 18—Seniors have a class meeting and plan a theater party as entertainment for the Juniors.
- 19—Juniors have a class meeting this morning. Plans were made for a Christmas party. Sounds interesting. We all hope that Helen, Bob, and Herb, have some good decorations.
- 20—The Sophomores are planning a skating party already.
- 21—No, Joe wasn't sick today—he had his hair combed because we had our pictures taken.
- 25—The girls are still wondering what Charles did in Chemistry today—ask Peg.
- 26—Everyone enjoyed the theater party. (Especially Art).
- 27—Seniors present a novel assembly. Your turn, Juniors.

DECEMBER

- 2—Every one looks as though they do not want to see turkey again—at least not until next Thanksgiving.
- 4—Seniors are busy selecting a play.
- 6—Don Day received birthday congratulations from the boys at noon today, in the form of blows.
- 9—The characters for the Senior Play, "Whimsy," were announced today by Miss Root.
- 10—The Seniors received their proofs from Camp Publishing Company today.
- 11—The Freshies have a skating party at the Golf Club. Refreshments were served while skating—but if you want details, ask Miss Affeldt who washed the dishes.
- 12—The G. B. H. S. football letter men attended a party at M. S. D., given by the county officials. Dan Gainey was placed on the all-County team. We are very proud of him.

- 13—Sophomores hold a Christmas party at the high school.
- 16—The teachers enjoy a Christmas party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Budd.
- 17—Since Mr. Williams isn't here, we wonder who will be Santa Claus this year. Those fitted for the job are Joe Dewey and Sue Gundry. Any more nominations?
- 19—Due to a snow storm, it was impossible for many to reach school, so Mr. Hutchins closed school for the day. Many skiing and sleighing parties were enjoyed.
- 20—A program given by the grades was enjoyed. There were many parties in the home rooms. Sue Gundry and Ann Gainey received the prize gifts. Merry Christmas!
- 31—We couldn't begin to tell what resolutions should be made for the new year.

JANUARY

- 2—Happy New Year! Ann and Sue hand a good line to Mr. Severance.
- 3—Anyone know a good etiquette teacher? Weston Hutchins needs one.
- 7—How can we Seniors preserve our dignity—observe the actions of our dear teachers.
- 8—We all miss Frances Crapser. Hurry and get well.
- 9—Mr. Hutchins' Physics class visited the Automobile Show in Flint. Alfred is thinking about trading in his Ford. Don't do it, we all like the paint job.
- 10—A very important meeting was held in the "Echo" office today. Joe gave many good readings.

- 13—Mr. Malott says, "Deaf and dumb people can read lips if they are close enough."
- 14—School life seems brighter, football boys appear in new sweaters.
- 17—Nellie believes in using the laundry.
- 20—The end of the "Three Musketeers."
- 22—Students are happy now—exams.
- 23—There were no lives lost!
- 24—Second semester begins.
- 27—The Juniors are busy picking out their play. Pick a good one!
- 29—"WHIMSY" goes over with a BANG!
- 30—Another capacity crowd.

FEBRUARY

- 4—Call me, "The Woman's Home Companion."
- 6—What's the matter, "Blues?"
- 10—Kate—Why so late to school?
Duplicate—Saw a sign outside, "School, Go Slow!"
- 11—More plans for Junior Class Party.
- 12—Nothing exciting.
- 13—Ditto.
- 14—Valentine's Day—Joe Perry comes to town—and how!
- 17—Such weather! Some of the Frosh boys show signs of Spring Fever.
- 19—Some Senior boys are planting gardens!
- 21—Washington assembly program by Freshmen.

24—Mr. Hutchins enjoys a week's vacation. Lucky!

25—Who prophesied Spring weather?

27—This isn't a bad school—its just the principle of the thing.

MARCH

4—The Seniors had a "free for all" this morning.

5—Joe, how's your heart?

7—We would suggest a muffler for Mr. Severance's fingers in order that the people in the back of the room might not be disturbed.

11—The Juniors have selected "Golden Days" as their play.

17—A day for the Irish and Freshies.

19—Who is this girl Emma we hear so much about? Maybe Joe can tell us!

21—Peg will never take swimming seriously. Trying to swim in a pail of water—anyway, she's all wet.

25—The new red jackets the boys are wearing are hard on the eyes.

26—The Juniors are busy working on their play.

APRIL

1—When you hear terrible noises in the hall it is the participators in the Music Contest practicing.

4—Music Contest held at Central High.

7—When Dan recovers he is going to "Paint the town red."

8—Charles and Ann are taking up flying in a big way.

9—The big question is—Are the Seniors going to have a Prom?

- 10—Yes—the Seniors are going to have a Prom.
- 11—Our Ann took second place in the Oratorical Contest—Ann carries on the family tradition.
- 14—No one hurt during Senior class meeting.
- 15—It won't be long before we poor Seniors will be thrown out into the cruel world.
- 17—Alfred, can't you cheer Frances up?
- 22—Another record for the reckless two. Bob Penny and Art Clune (ninety-three miles in an hour and a half).
- 24—Art, Al, Don, and Chuck, haven't fully recuperated from their week-end trip.
- 25—Rah! Rah! Rah! We beat Gaines, 10-5.
- 28—Sue has a very "attractive" new dress.
- 29—We hear John and Nellie have some technique.

MAY

- 1—Art, Ary, Chuck, and Ann, went to dinner and-and-and, what's this we hear about orchestra?
- 2—We hear there was some excitement in the "Echo"office.
- 5—All the girls look sleepy this morning. I guess pajama parties aren't the best things for you.
- 7—The Juniors present their play for the first time to the grades.
- 8—First night of "Golden Days." Congratulations, Juniors!
- 12—Be careful, Max, these boys know their "apparel."

13—Arthur's lucky day. Charles Stone gave (?) him a dollar.

15—Chemistry class went to Midland.

23—Senior Prom.

29—Good-bye until after decoration day.

JUNE

2—Reviews started. All Seniors garbed in thinking caps.

4—Art, Dan and Don say showers were plentiful and free on their trip.

5—Will Dorothy and Elwood ever stop fighting?

6—"Maw" Sanders had plenty of free boarders today. They acted like a bunch of starved Armenians.

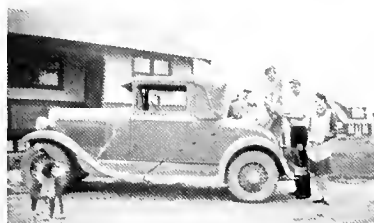

9—Well, Baccalaureate is over. The worst is yet to come. The Juniors know their stuff when it comes to decorating.

11—Seniors do their "stuff" tonight—class night.

12—At last! Goodbye and good luck to everyone.

“WHIMSY”

“Whimsy,” a play portraying the life of college students, was presented by the Class of '30, February 28 and 29.

The play centered around Whimsy, a poor, homeless Freshie, who was trying to get ahead in life. He was taken by Jack as a roommate. Jack, the President of the W. Y. W.'s, Work Your Way Club, was well liked throughout the student body and faculty, but held in scorn by a group of fraternity fellows, who envied him because of his popularity and excellent scholarship. Jack and Whimsy became wonderful pals.

Jack was in love with Judith, the sister of the leader of the frat group, Dale Denning. This placed Judy in a hard position. To show that she took no side in her brother's affair, she and Miss DuPont, the chaperone of Hepburn hall, called on Jack's group, inviting them to a party, staged at Hepburn Hall for the W. Y. W.'s.

On the night of the party, it was necessary for the fellows to go in disguise, to escape Dale's crowd.

On this very evening, the examination papers came up missing. The blame was at once inferred on Jack, because the appearance of the culprit tallied exactly with the disguise worn by Jack to the party, according to the story of Dale and his Pal, Bunk Peters, who said they saw the fellow running across the campus.

The case was brought before the Dean, and trial was held in his office. After several, including members of the W. Y. W.'s, Mrs. Sanders, Miss DuPont, Judith, Dale and Bunk, had testified, Jack was called on the stand. At this time, Whimsy appeared with the story of Jack's innocence. This turned suspicions toward Whimsy, because he would give no reasons for his certainty in the matter. He was at once expelled from the college.

Whimsy was making preparations to leave Kantrell, when the Dean, having learned the real story, hastened to Jack's room with Dale and his sister. Dale explained that he had planned the whole affair, trying to spoil Jack's reputation, so he would have no chance for the scholarship. When he realized the sportsmanship and true friendship displayed by Whimsy in saving Jack, he weakened and admitted that he, rather than Whimsy, was the villain.

Dale was forgiven by every one, and Whimsy and Jack were restored to their former prestige in Kantrell College.

“GOLDEN DAYS”

“Golden Days” is a romantic comedy. Mrs. Simmonds and Mary Ann, her daughter, live in Farmdale, Connecticut. A year before the time of the first scene, William Barclay, son of a wealthy man, was engaged to Mary Ann, but a winter in New York turns his head, and when the play opens, he had abandoned the country girl for Elaine Jewett, a fashionable young miss of the city. They all arrive in Farmdale for a dance, and Elaine can not miss the opportunity to scene herself before the country girl and laugh at her. Mrs. Kirkland, Mary Ann's wealthy aunt from New York arrives at this time. She, upon learning of the break between Billy Barclay and her niece, immediately sets out to teach Billy a lesson. She orders excellent gowns from New York, and informs Dickie Stanhope (also from New York and the son of wealthy parents) that he is to take Mary Ann to the dance, with further orders that he is to make love to Mary Ann in front of every one else at the dance, all of this for the purpose of making Billy jealous.

Mary Ann appears at the ball in a costume that dazzles every one. She is besought by all the boys, but Dickie, playing the game as directed by Aunty Kirk, shows an air of ownership over the country belle. Of course, Billy becomes furious, and his love for Elaine cools.

At this time, war is declared, and the boys leave for France, and Mary Ann, not wishing to be left behind, goes as a Canteen girl. She discovers that the “make believe” romance has become a reality, but feels that Dickie does not care for her, as a letter from him, telling her of his love for her is mislaid by the maid, and does not reach her before she sails for France.

Two years expire before they return to Farmdale. Mary Ann's friends reach Farmdale first, including Patty and Teddy, who are married, and Elaine and Billy, Trella and Lloyd, who are engaged. They plan to surprise Mary Ann. The surprise party is a success, especially when Dickie arrives, and with the tactful help of Mrs. Kirkland, the letter is restored and also the love between Dickie and Mary Ann.

WHO STARTED EDUCATION?

When the warm days of spring are at hand, when the birds are beginning to hop among the branches, and when soft breezes blow a gentle breath through the open windows, many pupils—maybe even you—have fidgeted in their seats, restless and anxious to be outside. And as the hands of the clock drag themselves across the face at a rate that would make a snail seem like the limited express, you may have asked yourself in disgust, “Who started education, anyway?”

Education of a rude sort probably started with the first man, but only after a second one came along, who needed the experience of the first one or a help in taking care of himself more easily.

In the eastern part of the world, the first records of schools are to be found among the Chaldens, a race that no longer exists, the ancient Egyptians, who likewise have disappeared, the Hindus and the Chinese.

Memory and imitation were the processes used by the pupils. The written sayings of the past had to be learned with absolute accuracy. The teacher's purpose was, “first, to compel his pupils to Remember; secondly, to Remember; and thirdly, and even more to Remember.” Education did nothing to develop new knowledge, it mostly imprinted this image on the child's mind.

There could not be much of an educational system until the time of a written language. The first written language was composed of signs and markings or carvings on stones and waxed tablets. In the beginning of this written language, not everybody knew the mystery of learning. A few who were fortunate enough to understand this symbol writing, guarded the treasure very much. In order to master this, there had to be a long period of training. Then out of this training, there arises an institution that resembles almost exactly what you know as a school. Therefore, the first school could scarcely have started before a written language had been developed.

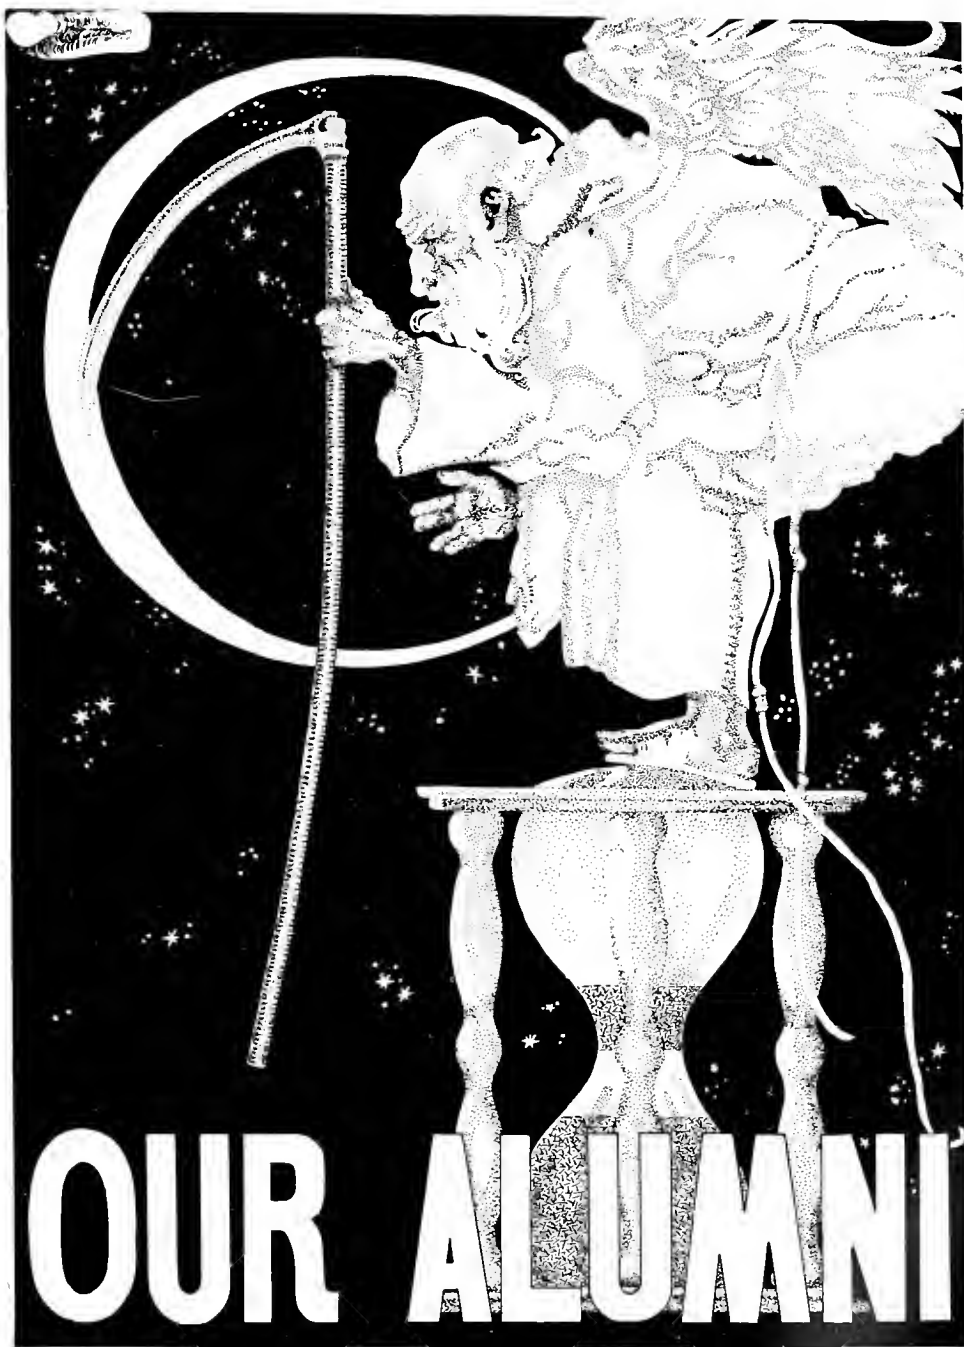

In all ages education has not only been narrow when compared with today, but it has also reached only a few of the people. No matter who started education, there is just one fact that shows you what an amazing thing it has become to be. That fact, so large that it staggers you, is that more than a million boys and girls are now going to school in a single city—New York.

Frankly, it doesn't matter who started education, if someone will only keep it going. Education has been given more and more work to do. It has to spread out constantly, and take in new territory. We are at this time, enjoying a better education than has ever before been known. I am sure that there isn't a pupil in High School that has learned the value of education that wouldn't gladly thank any person who is a promoter of modern education.

NEW TEACHERS ARE ENTERTAINED

The new teachers were welcomed and given a chance to get acquainted at a picnic at Potters' Lake, Tuesday, September 3. The afternoon and evening was spent in getting back to childhood ways again. The hamburgs were thought to be the cause.

SENIORS HAVE WIENER ROAST

This being our last year, we were anxious to get together and talk over Senior activities. We chose Wednesday, September 18, for the set time, meeting at Copneconic Lake for a wiener roast.

The fellows built a fire, and after every one had eaten to their capacity, we gathered around the fire and made our plans for the year.

Miss Coghlan had many ideas for a lively year, and every one fell in with them at once.

After a real peppy evening, we broke up, anticipating a year always to be remembered.

ANOTHER ROAST!

The fall of the year seems to be an ideal time for roasts. And too, Dewey Woods is a perfect place to stage one.

The teachers lived up to their reputation on September 24. Talk about appetites! They ate them fried brown, cold, or raw. But weren't they good!

What's better than a good sizzling weenie-bun and a steaming cup of coffee? Yum-yum!

FRESHMEN INITIATION WEEK

It is an old custom that Freshies be made to "toe the line" by the Sophs for an interval of a few days.

The Sophomores took great advantage of this opportunity, September 25, 26, and 27. They must have lain awake nights thinking of things to make our poor little Freshies do.

Dolls were brought to school, odd shoes worn, shirts and dresses worn backwards, and many other farces.

It was taken very good naturedly by the green Freshies, but nevertheless, they were glad when it was over.

On Friday, September 27, came the culmination of Freshmen horrors, initiation.

The Sophomores entertained the Freshmen at their annual party at the High School.

Games and contests were held in the gymnasium. The class winning the largest number of points in the various contests, received a large picture. This was taken by the Sophomore class, and placed in their home room at once.

Following games, every one adjourned to the cafeteria for a three-course luncheon. The procession was in the form of a grand march, led by the class presidents.

The party was sponsored by Miss Reynolds and Miss Affeldt.

HARD TIME PARTY

The Goodrich faculty helped the Grand Blanc faculty enjoy a "Hard Time" party, Tuesday evening, October 29, in the gymnasium.

The ancient and tattered costumes matched the decorations of newspapers, dead leaves, and lanterns. Refreshments consisted of popcorn, apples, cider, and doughnuts.

After playing Hallowe'en games, the evening was spent dancing. Florence Crapser and Jimmy Atkins furnished the music.

SENIOR-JUNIOR PARTY

On Monday, November 25, the Seniors entertained the Juniors, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Pepper. Fifty-two members of the two classes met at the school, going from there to the Capitol Theater, at Flint, seeing "Flight."

After the show, they returned to the High School cafeteria. The room was the scene of the festive Thanksgiving season. Here, a two-course luncheon was served by the Senior girls.

At the close of the evening, the Junior Vice-President, Clayton Olson, thanked the Seniors, to which Don Day, Senior President, gave response.

TEACHERS HAVE DINNER PARTY

On November 25, the teachers journeyed to the Smith home at Rankin for a chop suey dinner. Following dinner, bridge was indulged in.

If there is any doubt as to whether everyone had a good time, just ask Miss Benda how she liked the Coo Coo game, and Superintendent Hutchins about the bridge score.

FRESHMEN SKATING PARTY

Wednesday night, December 11, the Freshmen held a skating party at the Golf Club. The party was sponsored by Miss Affeldt, the class sponsor, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Pepper.

After skating, the party returned to the High School, and had lunch in the cafeteria. Following lunch, games were played in the gymnasium.

SOPHOMORE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Sophomores have a Christmas Party.

Have a good time, Sophomores?

"You bet we did."

Forty-six members of the Sophomore class enjoyed a six-thirty pot-luck dinner at the school cafeteria, Thursday evening, December 12.

The cafeteria radiated Christmas with suitable decorations. Names had been exchanged, and the presents were used as place cards.

After a good dinner—the excitement of opening presents—anything from airplanes, rattles, baby dolls, refreshment outfits, to jack knives and safety razors.

What did you Sophomores do next? Went into the gymnasium—enjoyed games—until the orders: "Time to clean up." Not so bad, when every one helps.

TEACHERS' CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Budd's, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins and Miss Hecht, entertained the teachers at a Christmas party, on December 16.

Mr. Hutchins and Mr. Budd had charge of the fun. They even went so far as to put on a show. The different members of the faculty represented stage furniture. Miss Callen made an excellent radio. Margaret Gundry did very well for a grand piano, while Linda Campbell glowed as a floor lamp. The show was a great success until the title was announced. It was "The Gathering of the Nuts."

After refreshments were served, the Christmas Tree was enjoyed. Every one received a "useful" gift. Probably the most useful and needed gift was received by Mr. Hutchins, a bottle of hair tonic. Oh, Hecht!

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

On Monday night, February 3, the teachers again were entertained, this time at the home of Margaret Gundry.

The party was in the form of a Valentine party. Bridge and hearts were played, with Mr. Hazzard and Mr. Batchelor entertaining between games with stories of their own "Campus Capers," very original.

Dainty refreshments were served by the committee, Marguerite Countryman, Mary Lowrie, Loleta Callen, Viola Couke, and Margaret Gundry.

BASKETBALL PARTY

The girls' basketball team entertained the boys' first and second teams, coaches, officials, and cheer leaders on Monday, February 24.

A three-course dinner was served in the high school cafeteria at seven o'clock, covers being laid for fifty-six.

The dining room was artistically decorated in school colors—red and black.

Following dinner, the coaches and captains gave short addresses. The entertainment was left to the boys' team.

Herb Page introduced Don Day as toastmaster. Don, in turn, called on different people to show their ability as entertainers. Coach Batchelor said he wasn't responsible for anything that was said or done. Perhaps it was a good thing for him.

After some peppy music, including our high school song, and some good yells from the cheer leaders, every one adjourned to the gym, where dancing was enjoyed, including a feature dance by Don Day and Arileen McNeil.

THE JUNIORS HAVE A PARTY

"Singing in the Rain" was the song of the Juniors on the evening of January 11, 1930, when they had their annual party in the high school gymnasium.

The evening was diverted to games and dancing, followed by a rush for refreshments in the cafeteria.

Mr. Pepper, their sponsor, and Mrs. Pepper, were guests of honor. Juniors! Why don't you have more parties!

JUNIOR HIGH PARTY

On May 7, the 7A class held a class party in the high school assembly room.

It was attended by the whole class. Games and jokes were enjoyed.

The party was chaperoned by Miss Callen and Miss Countryman.

Luncheon was served in the cafeteria.

All had a good time and plenty of laughs.

Those who think our jokes are poor,
Would straightway change their views,
Could they compare the jokes we print,
With those that we refuse.

:: :: ::

The teacher of a certain school asked his pupils one day if any of them could tell him who Joan of Arc was. The question was followed by profound silence. Some of the pupils stared at the teacher, and some turned and stared at one another, as if seeking the information in the faces around them. Finally, a boy burst out with: "Oh, yes, I know—she was Noah's wife."

:: :: ::

Mr. Hutchins—Surely, you know what the word "mirror" means, Robert. After you've washed, what do you look at to see if your face is clean?

Robert Anderson—The towel, sir.

:: :: ::

Don Day—My friends, we are come together as members of the Senior class, our speaker and guest of honor is here, shall we have his speech at once, or shall we enjoy ourselves longer?

:: :: ::

Miss Root (giving exam.)—Do any of the questions puzzle you?

Grethel W.—Not at all, the questions are perfectly clear; its the answers that give me trouble.

:: :: ::

Miss Derthick—What is the matter with your singing? You are simply screeching.

Bob C.—Only hittin' on one tonsil.

"Young man," said Mr. Hazzard, as he grabbed Nelson D. by the shoulders, "I believe Satan has hold of you,"

"I believe he has," was the instant reply.

Grant C.—Dad, please help me with my 'rithmetic problems. I gotta find out the greatest possible divisor.

Mr. Cheney (in disgust)—Great Scott, haven't they found that thing yet? They were looking for it when I was a boy.

The following question was asked on an Economics Exam: "Give for any one year the number of bales of cotton exported from the United States."

After thinking a while, Dan G. wrote: "1492 none."

Hugh Gundry hesitated when Mr. Schneidewind called on him to recite. Mr. Schneidewind, who wished to cure pupils of bluffing, said to him:

"Hugh, what would you call a person who pretends to know everything?"

Hugh (immediately)—"Why, a teacher, of course."

Maxine E.—What did your mother say when she heard you had flunked out?

Glenn R.—She became historical.

Maxine—Hysterical, you mean.

Glenn R.—No, I mean historical. She dug up my past and reviewed all my sins.

Mr. Malott—Give me the principal parts of the verb that means to skate.

Douglas C.—Skato, slippere, falli, bumpus.

Mr. Malott—Falio, failure, flunkie, suspendus.

Lucille Harris—Raymond, you have been drinking. I can smell your breath.

Ray Gibson—Nonsense. I've been eating frog's legs and you can smell the hops.

Miss Lowrie was giving the class a lecture on "gravity."

"Now, children," she said, "it is the law of gravity that keeps us on this earth."

"But, please, teacher," inquired one small child, "how did we stick on before the law was passed?"

Policeman—As soon as I saw you come around the bend, I said to myself, forty-five, at least.

Max—How dare you—its this hat that makes me look so old.

Bob Crosby—If you keep looking at me like that, I'm going to kiss you!

Esther H.—Well, I can't hold this expression much longer.

Mr. Batchelor—What are the races that have dominated England since the invasion of the Romans?

Don Clark—The Derby and the Grand National.

Mr. Malott—If you had a little more spunk you would be at the head of the class. Do you know what spunk is?

Ferris W.—Yes, sir. It's the past participle of spank.

Mr. Hutchins—Can you give me an example of wasted energy?

Billy P.—Yes, sir, telling a hair-raising story to a bald-headed man.

“Johnnie,” asked Miss Affeldt, “what can you tell me of America’s foreign relations at the present time?”

Johnnie Crapser—“They’re all broke.”

Mr. Davis—Aren’t you ashamed to be at the bottom in a class of twenty-eight boys?

Burrington—Oh, that’s not so bad.

Mr. Davis—What do you mean, not so bad?

Burrington—Suppose there were fifty boys.

Bobby Defendorf (home from the first day of school)—Mother, Miss Campbell asked me a question that no one in the room could answer but me.

Mrs. D. (proudly)—What was it, my boy?

Bobby—She asked me what my address is.

Mr. McNeil—So your son has been injured and is coming home from college?

Mr. Gundry—Yes, he sprained his ukulele finger.

Miss Root—What did Juliet say when she met Romeo in the balcony?

Chuck Stone—Couldn’t you get seats in the orchestra?

Mr. Malott—Have you done your outside reading yet?

Ary McNiel—No, it’s been too cold.

Grant C.—I hear Sereita is going to drop orchestra and take up singing.

Clayton—Oh, she's going from bad to "voice."

Mr. Hutchins—And so we find that heat expands things and cold contracts them. Can anyone give me an example of this?

Herby P.—Yes, sir. The days are longer in summer.

"Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"

"At the bottom of the page."

"Say, did you hear about the absent-minded professor, who put his cane in bed and stood in the corner?"

"That is nothing. How about the professor who held an egg in his hand and boiled his watch for 15 minutes?"

Mr. Malott—You people can't seem to remember anything. I shall simply have to give you more dates.

Gerry Bab—I have Wednesday nite open.

Coach Batch—What experience have you had lately?

Dan G.—Well, this summer I was hit by two autos and a truck.

Ross P.—I call her my automobile girl—I'd like to choke her.

She—Let's do something unusual.

He—All right, you pay for the tickets.

Gerald—You have made a fool of me.

Geraldine—I only put on the finishing touches.

Pauline—Can you sign your name with your eyes shut, dad?

Mr. B.—Certainly.

"Well, shut your eyes and sign my report card."

Your high school training in English, History, Algebra, etc., will prove a splendid foundation when you look for a position. But without further SPECIAL training you will not get a fair chance to use them. In business, especially, the man or girl with specialized training climbs the highest. This is shown by the records of numbers of young people who started working after leaving high school—then realized the need for SPECIAL training and came here for a course in Business. We shall be glad to explain how our specialized courses will help you after graduation.

We are accredited by the National Association of Accredited Commercial Schools and are under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction of the State of Michigan.

At a school examination the question was asked: "Were the kings of Israel rich or poor?"

Don Clark answered: "I guess they were poor, because the Bible says they slept with their fathers. If they'd been rich they would all have had beds of their own."

:: :: ::

Mr. Severance—If you wanted to make a salt solution in a hurry, would you use hot or cold water?

John F.—I'd use cold.

"Cold! But why cold?"

"Well, if I was in a hurry, I wouldn't want to take time to heat the water."

:: :: ::

Salesman—Do you want this suit with a belt in the back and a cuff on the pants?

Don Day—No! Do you want a sock in the eye?

WHY TEACHERS GET MARRIED

"What are glaciers?"

"Guys what fix windows when they are broken."

:: :: ::

"What is a peninsula?"

"A bird that lives on icebergs."

:: :: ::

"What is a volcano?"

"A mountain with a hole in the top. If you look down you can see the creator smoking."

:: :: ::

"Why does a dog hang out his tongue when running?"

"To balance its tail."

:: :: ::

"What is steel wool?"

"The fleece of a hydraulic ram."

:: :: ::

"What are the Christian nations?"

"Those that use cuss words."
